Weddings.

McCleery-Poole.

Miss Elizabeth Dodds Poole, daughter of the late N. A. Poole, and John Francis McCleery were married yesterday morning at 11 o'clock at Epiphany Church. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Plummer, assistant rector of the church. There were no decorations and the bride and groom were unattended. Immediately upon their arrival at the church the electric lights were turned on and a quartet, including W. D. McFarland, Perry Turpin, Frank Reeside, and Walter Humphrey, sang the "Bridal Chorus" from "Lohengrin," as the bridal couple walked down the aisle together. The bride wore an artistic their daughter, Mrs. Thomas E. Todd, gown of mauve silk poplin, with touches Mrs. Susie Adams, Mr. Todd, Richard G. for their home in Galveston, Tex.
